How to make a complaint to the:

Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal Service (COPFS)

SCOTLAND'S PROSECUTION SERVICE

What is a complaint?

A complaint is where you let us know that you are unhappy about something like:

- the way the organisation has treated you
- the way they have dealt with a matter involving you

You will not get in trouble for making a complaint.

When to complain?

You should complain as soon as it happens or within 6 months.

You can complain

a friend

- a relative
- an advocate (someone from the Scottish Independent Advocacy Alliance who will support you)

The Scottish Independent Advocacy Alliance (SIAA) can support you to make a complaint.

Telephone - 0131 260 5380

Tell us

Tell us your name, address and how we can contact you

Tell us why you are complaining. What has gone wrong? What has happened? What can we do to make it better?

Tell us how you would like us to reply to you – for example, if you would prefer an e-mail or a letter, or if you need us to use a different format.

What will we do

We will try our best to make things better.

We will let you know that we have received your complaint within 5 working days.

Simple Complaints

For some complaints, we aim to contact you to discuss your issue within 5 working days to offer an explanation or an apology.

Complicated complaints

If your complaint is more serious we will need more time to look into what happened.

We aim to tell you how we have dealt with your complaint within 20 working days.

If you are still unhappy

If you are still unhappy you can contact the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman and ask them to look at your complaint.
